Dynamic Investment Process

Global Strategic Allocation with Tactical Tilts

- 1 We design dynamic strategic allocation models. Value drives our long-term allocation strategy. We believe the price you pay for an asset class is a key determinant of returns over time.
- 2 We tactically adjust the models. This long-term strategy is then modified with tactical tilts designed to accommodate current market trends, putting greater weight on asset classes that have positive momentum. In other words, our asset allocation strategy seeks to combine our judgment of value with our sense of momentum, making our largest allocations when our evaluation of value and momentum are aligned.
- 3 We offer “the world in one account”, meaning that we research and implement investments on a global basis. To do this successfully, we implement fundamental and technical disciplines into our security selection process.
- 4 We practice both proactive and reactive risk management which includes putting tactical plans in place for a myriad of scenarios.

Description

The RiverFront Asset Allocation Income & Growth seeks to provide attractive current income and modest potential for that income to grow over time primarily through investments in fixed income securities supplemented by dividend paying stocks. The Fund is designed for investors seeking current income and the potential for their income level to grow over time, while managing risk. To achieve these objectives the Fund will typically have a significant allocation to dividend paying stocks; therefore, investors in this Fund should be able to assume a certain degree of portfolio volatility. Under normal conditions, the Fund's portfolio is expected to have between 50% and 80% of its assets invested in various income-paying securities, including corporate debt, with the balance of the Fund (typically 20%-50%) invested in a diversified basket of dividend paying stocks. The fixed-income securities may be of any quality or duration. The Fund may also invest significantly in exchange-traded funds (ETFs). The portfolio management team may depart from the targeted allocation range when they feel that certain sectors of the financial markets are overvalued or undervalued.

The performance of the Fund relative to its benchmark will depend largely on the decisions of the RiverFront Investment Group, LLC (the "Sub-Advisor" or "RiverFront") as to strategic asset allocation and tactical adjustments made to the asset allocation. At times, RiverFront's judgments as to the asset classes in which the Fund should invest may prove to be wrong, as some asset classes may perform worse than others or the equity markets generally from time to time or for extended periods of time. The performance of the Fund is related to the economic sectors that RiverFront may choose to emphasize or deemphasize from time to time, as well as to the individual securities selected by RiverFront within those sectors. The investment returns for particular economic sectors will fluctuate and may be lower than other sectors. In addition, the individual securities chosen for investment within a particular sector may underperform other securities within that same sector. Certain stocks selected for the Fund's portfolio may decline in value more than the overall stock markets.

The value of the Fund's investments in fixed-income securities will generally decrease when interest rates rise, which means the Fund's NAV will likewise decrease.
